chart-family · legend rail

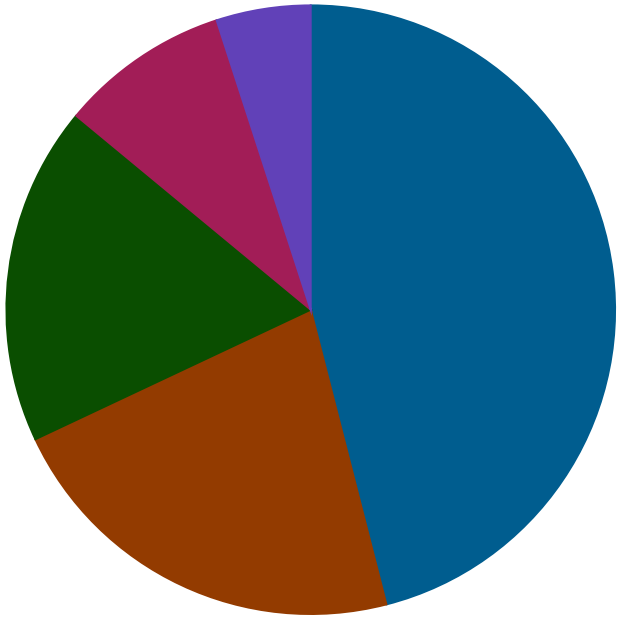

Chart legends, rebalanced.

A shared key for every color-categorical chart — one separator, one rhythm, balanced as a group.

H1 2026 · 1,840 person-hours

Where the planning quarter actually went.

Nearly half went to producing decks; the deciding itself was the smallest slice.

Deck production	46%
Meetings about meetings	22%
Realigning on priorities	18%
Stakeholder management	9%
Actually deciding	5%

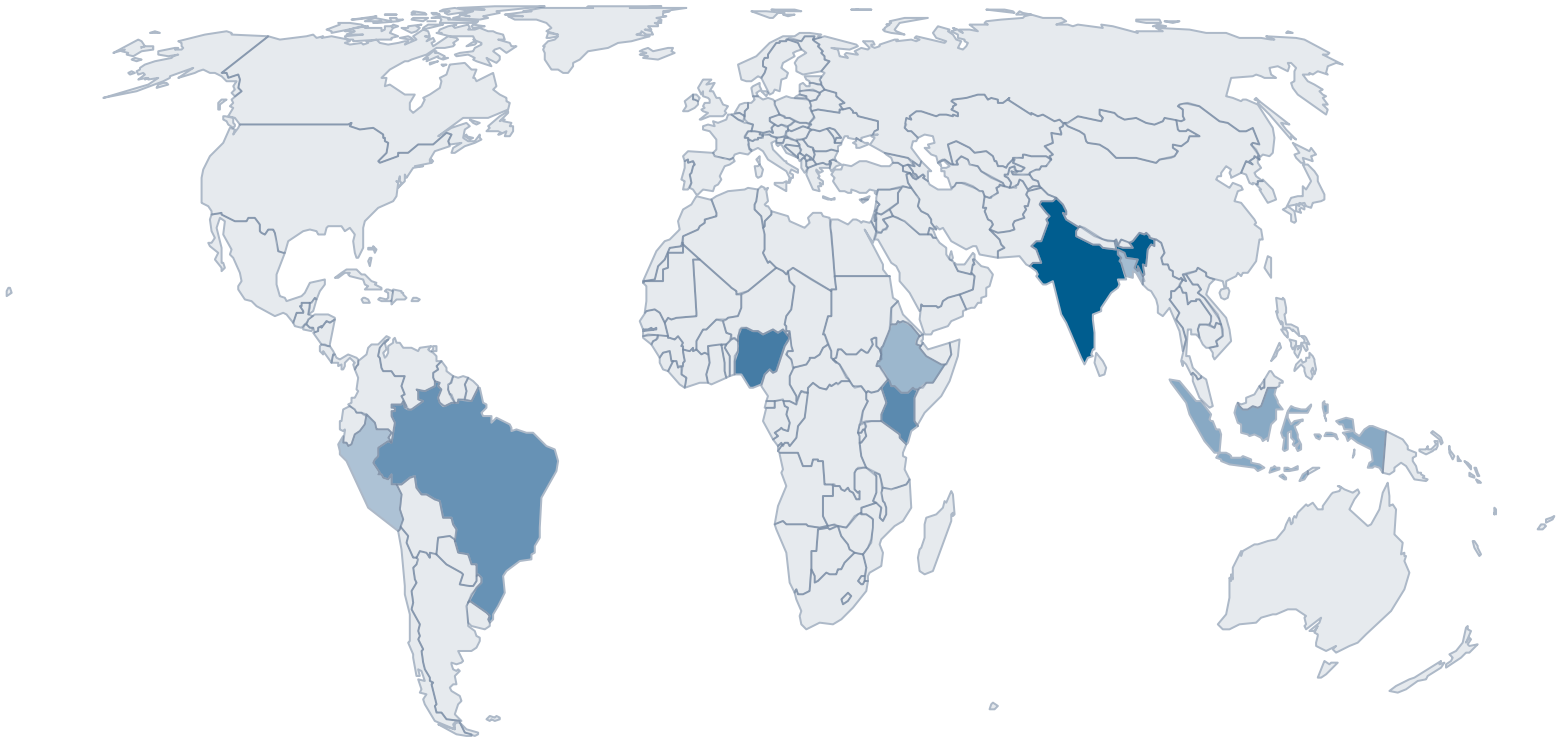

How we stack up across the buying criteria.

A three-vendor read; the legend keys the series without crowding the diagram.

Where our programs reached — unevenly.

A wide basemap takes a wider canvas; the rail keeps its room and the spine still divides.

India	48.2
Nigeria	36.4
Kenya	31.0
Brazil	27.5
Indonesia	19.3
Ethiopia	14.1
Bangladesh	11.8
Peru	9.6

Stress test · long labels

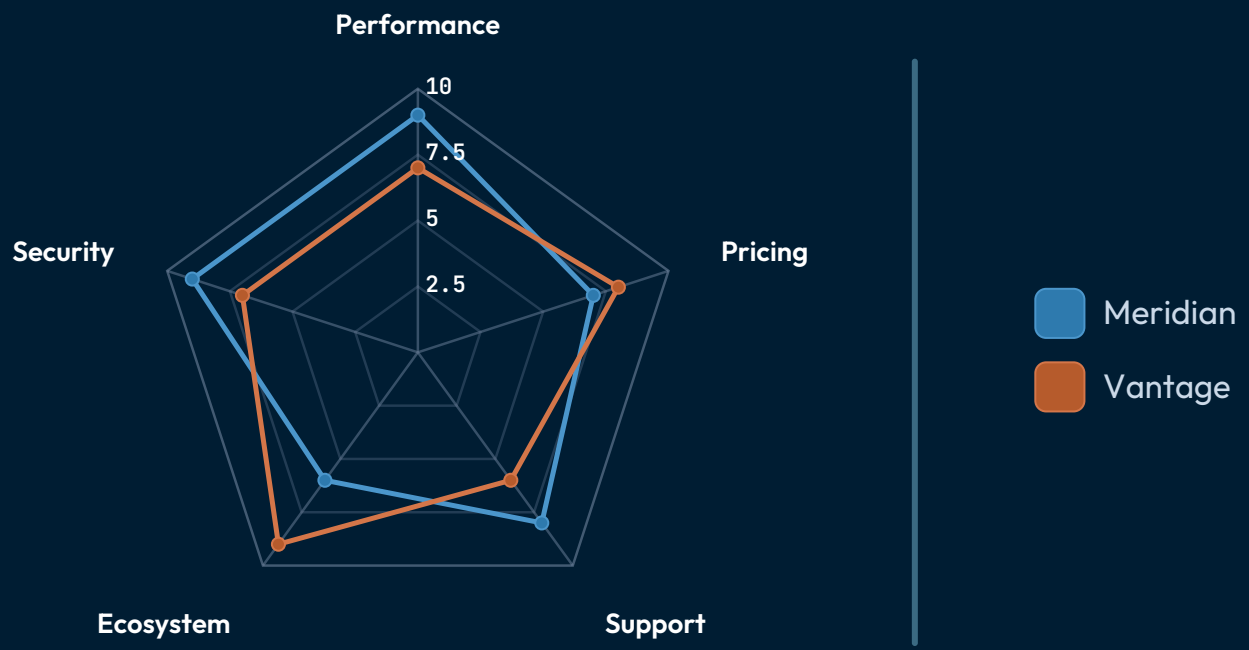

The key wraps instead of clipping when authors go long.

Enterprise platform engineering and shared services	38%
Customer-facing application development teams	27%
Data, analytics, and machine-learning infrastructure	19%
Security, compliance, and governance functions	11%
Everything else nobody wanted to own	5%

Scale · 0–10 · dark canvas

The rail and spine hold on the dark canvas too.

pie · radar · map · cohort quadrant

One rail. Every key.

Consistent placement, a gradient spine, readable labels that wrap — balanced, not centered.
