When NOT to reach for agenda.

Sub-bullets per section

The agenda is a wayfinder, not a treatment. If a section needs decomposition, that belongs on a section divider when the section opens — not here.

Unnumbered list

Authoring with `-` instead of `1.` loses the numbered chrome the layout depends on. Always use ordered list syntax.

Single-section decks

If the deck has no sections to enumerate, skip the agenda. Empty wayfinding is more friction than no wayfinding.

More than six sections

A single agenda slide holds up to six sections at a legible row height; beyond that the rows crowd the footer. Group related items under fewer headings, or split the agenda across two slides.
