One key places content up and down, and side to side

`align: top · middle · bottom · spread · fill · left · center · right · full`

This deck sets `align: bottom`. Each slide below names its own words, and only the axis it names changes.

The deck says bottom, so the cards sit on the floor.

Center on its own centers both ways.

A short statement reads as composed in the middle of the frame, not pinned under the title.

Bottom and right, written as one class.

The content block ends at the right edge and sits on the floor.

Spread shares the spare height between the rows.
